PONCA INDIAN

1952

Neva Lewis Townsend

Ponca, Nebraska

Mrs. Townsend:
I've been awfully homesick as a teacher. I've enjoyed your classes very much. Especially dear old journalism class. Thanks for everything you have done for me in getting me through my journalism courses.
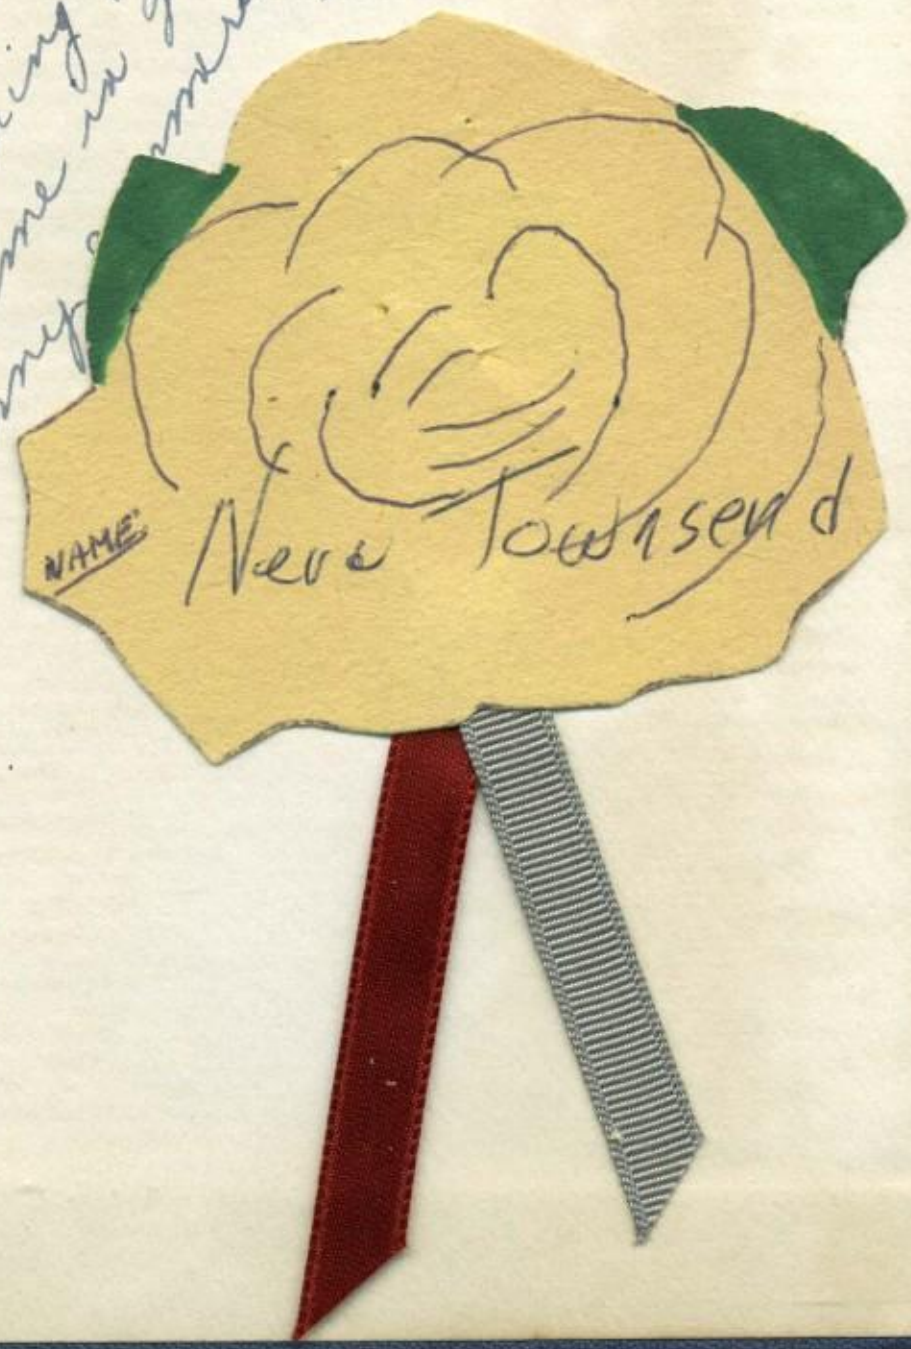
Norma.



Dear Laurene,
I have enjoyed having you as a teacher. You are really sweet.
Thanks for everything. See ya
Bye! Love
Lisa Fae

Mrs. Townsend
Thanks for everything. Love for me in School. Alice

It's been wonderful to in class with you.
hope that I will retain some of the things that have learned.
Best wishes and may the future bring you happiness
Janice McIntyre

Mrs. Townsend.
I have enjoyed
being in your class.
and I hope I can make use of some of the things you
taught me.
Marilyn Schultz

Mrs. Townsend
I have enjoyed being in your Typing an Journalism classes. Many thanks for what you have taught me.
Your Pupil

BASKETS of white carnations and greenery decorated Morningside Presbyterian church for the wedding at 10:30 o'clock Saturday morning, when Miss Patricia Ann McKercher became the bride of Paul Reinhold Heil. The double ring ceremony was read by Rev. W. R. Moore.

Jon Vorisek was soloist, and Mrs. John F. Schmidt, accompanist. Numbers included The Lord's Prayer and I Love Thee.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. McKercher, 2310 S. Clinton street, and Mr. Heil is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Heil of Ponca, Neb.

The flower girls were Linda Kay Schild and Cynthia Lynne Adams. They wore frocks of powder blue swiss organdy. Michael Dee Miller carried the rings. Taperlighters, Miss Patricia Sheffield and Miss Jean DeWitt, wore white nylon frocks.

Miss Gloria Luther, maid of honor, wore a princess style gown of pink lace with full, ankle-length skirt. She wore a bandeau of pink flowers and carried a cascade of pink roses and blue delphinium. Miss Patricia McNeill, bridesmaid, wore powder blue organdy, with blue flowers in her hair, and carried a similar bouquet.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white chantilly lace and satin with lace bodice and bouffant skirt of satin that extended into a chapel train. Her illusion veil fell from a pleated crown of seed pearls and she carried a cascade of white roses.

Ralph D. Miller of Omaha was best man and Thomas McKercher, Matthew Thornton and Paul Bird ushered.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue dress with white accessories, and Mrs. Heil wore sheer black and white. Both wore
